IN RECOGNITION OF THE 100TH BIRTHDAY OF ANNE FORRESTER LYBRAND

HON. MIKE ROGERS

OF ALABAMA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, October 14, 2009

Mr. ROGERS of Alabama. Madam Speaker, I would like to request the House's attention today to pay recognition to the special life of Anne Forrester Lybrand of Oxford, Alabama.

Mrs. Lybrand was born on November 11, 1906 in Talladega County. She was married to Mr. Eule Lybrand in 1928 and was blessed with two sons, Eule Lybrand, Jr. and Fred Ray Lybrand.

Mrs. Lybrand and her husband owned their own business and she also worked as a City Clerk for the City of Oxford. She has been an active member of First United Methodist Church of Oxford since 1946 where she taught Sunday school, and is past President of the United Methodist Women's Group.

She also has been involved with Interfaith Ministries and is a Charter Member of the Oxford "Meals on Wheels" program.

On November 7th, her friends and family will celebrate her birthday at her church. Today I would like to wish Mrs. Anne Forrester Lybrand a very Happy 100th Birthday.

CONGRATULATING ACT, INC., ON ITS 50TH ANNIVERSARY

HON. DAVID LOESACK

OF IOWA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, October 14, 2009

Mr. LOESACK. Madam Speaker, I would like to recognize and congratulate ACT, Inc., on its 50th anniversary, and 50 years of accomplishments. ACT, originally American College Testing Program, was founded in Iowa's first state capitol in Iowa City, IA, in 1959. The goal was to help all students who wanted to attend college find the best match for their interests and abilities and to help colleges and universities place students into appropriate freshman-level classes. On November 7, 1959 about 75,000 students took the first ACT Assessment; in the high school graduating class of 2009 nearly 1.5 million students—45 percent of all high school graduates in our nation took the ACT.

While ACT started with a single focus, the organization now conducts research and offers a broad array of programs and services to help provide solutions to many of the complex education and workforce problems facing our nation and those abroad. ACT, with its educational knowledge, has expanded to help bridge the barriers that remain in accessing the globalized marketplace for millions of individuals around the globe. Through local partnerships in 13 countries ACT is working to improve the educational opportunities for the students and help teach English as a second language.

I am honored to represent many of the employees of ACT here in the U.S. House of Representatives. I congratulate them and all of the ACT employees, directors, and members of state organizations on their 50-year history of helping people achieve education and workplace success.

TRIBUTE TO W. FRANK JONES

HON. JAMES E. CLYBURN

OF SOUTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, October 14, 2009

Mr. CLYBURN. Madam Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to a good friend and an important public servant. W. Frank Jones recently retired after 14 years as Executive Director of the Marion County Economic Development Commission. His leadership and devotion will certainly be missed.

Frank Jones was born in Marion County in the farming community of Gapway. Although he loved growing up on a farm, Frank knew early on that he didn't want to follow his parents, Ernest F. Jones and Nina Brown Jones, into the family business.

After graduating from Mullins High School, Frank enlisted in his local National Guard unit in December 1953. On October 1957, upon graduation from Palmetto Military Academy, he was appointed an armor officer assigned to the 1st Battalion, 263rd Armor in the South Carolina Army National Guard. He served in this battalion through December 1982, with assignments ranging from Company Commander to Battalion Executive Officer and Battalion Commander. From December 1982 through March 1986, he was assigned to the State Area Command, where he served as Deputy Commander, Detachment 1 (Troop Command) from June 1983 to September 1984. He became Deputy Commander of the 218th Heavy Separate Brigade in March 1986.

Frank received numerous federal and state awards and decorations during his 40 years of service to the National Guard. He eventually retired from the Army National Guard after he rose to the rank of Brigadier General in the Army National Guard where he commanded the 3rd Brigade of the historic 1st Infantry Division.

General Jones also demonstrated his commitment to serving his community in other ways. From 1966 until 1982, he served on the Mullins City Council and was Mayor pro tem in 1981–1982. Professionally, he pursued a career in banking receiving degrees from the South Carolina Bankers School, the Louisiana State Graduate School of Banking, the Commercial Lending School of the University of Oklahoma, and the State University of New York at Albany. He went to work for Davis National Bank of Mullins, and in 1981, he became the bank's President and CEO, a position he held for 13 years. Frank decided to embark on another career as Executive Director of the Marion County Economic Development Commission. He also furthered his education by completing an economic development course at Georgia State University in 1995.

Frank's tenure at the Commission was marked by difficult circumstances. Marion County historically had an agricultural-based economy. With the decline in tobacco farming, the county became a hub for textile manufacturing. Subsequently the textile industry suffered big losses as jobs were moved overseas and plants were closed leaving large unemployment in the county.

Frank did a tremendous job attracting diverse smaller industries to the county, which helps protect against the devastation the county suffered when its two previous economic engines collapsed. He also grew Marion County Progress, an organization made up of local business leaders that help drive economic development in the area, from a handful of people to members.

Throughout his life, Frank has remained connected to his community. He is a member of Mullins First Baptist Church where he serves as Treasurer, teacher of adult men's Sunday School, and Deacon. He is a member of the Mullins Rotary Club, and is a past President. He has also served as Chairman of the Board of Visitors at Francis Marion University, and is a past Director of the S.C. Bankers Association. Frank is a recipient of the Order of the Palmetto, the highest civilian honor bestowed by the Governor of South Carolina.

He is married to Joann McCumber Jones. The couple has two children Charles Jones and Karen Grice, both of Marion, and five grandchildren.

Madam Speaker, I ask you and my colleagues to join me in congratulating Frank Jones on his retirement and thanking him for his years of service to Marion County, the State of South Carolina and our nation. He has dedicated his life to helping his community and it is a much better place because of his
